

Grammar: Gerund & Infinitive

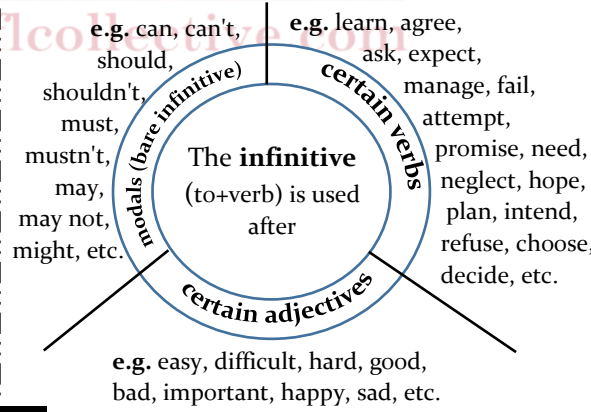

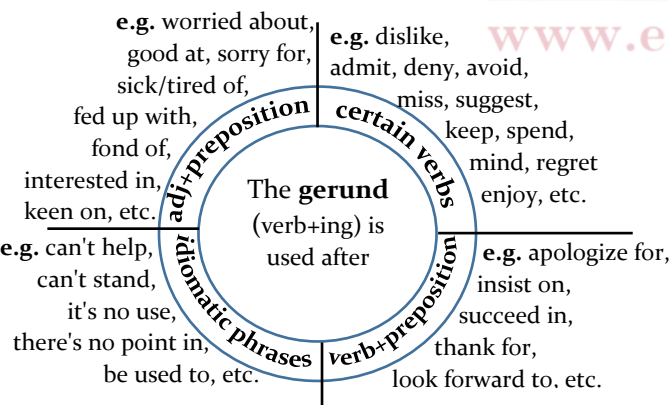

Note that the gerund and the infinitive can be used after certain verbs like:

- like, love, hate,
- prefer, begin, start,
- try, continue,
- go on, stop, forget,
- remember, etc.

Put the verbs in brackets in the infinitive or gerund.

1. What do you like (do) _____ in your freetime?
2. On his way to work, my dad usually stops (pick up) _____ hitchhikers, whatever they look like.
3. "Thank you for (call) _____, my dear. I'm looking forward to (see) _____ you in Paris soon."
4. Would you mind (repeat) _____ that? I didn't really catch what you said.
5. The secretary is tired of (talk) _____ to strangers all the time that he plans (quit) _____ the job.
6. My mom refused (help) _____ me with the homework. She insists on (let) _____ me rely on myself.
7. Now that we study for less hours at school, I spend most of my time (check) _____ different resources.
8. A: Are you happy (be) _____ back to school?
B: Yes, of course. I enjoy (study) _____ with my classmates.
9. I find it difficult (drive) _____ in the rain.
10. We all must (abide by) _____ our classroom rules.
11. I decided (revise) _____ my lessons regularly. I hate (leave) _____ things till the last minute.
12. It's no use (cry) _____ over spilt milk.

Grammar: Gerund & Infinitive

Note that the gerund and the infinitive can be used after certain verbs like:

- like, love, hate,
- prefer, begin, start,
- try, continue,
- go on, stop, forget,
- remember, etc.

Put the verbs in brackets in the infinitive or gerund.

1. What do you like (do) _____ in your freetime?
2. On his way to work, my dad usually stops (pick up) _____ hitchhikers, whatever they look like.
3. "Thank you for (call) _____, my dear. I'm looking forward to (see) _____ you in Paris soon."
4. Would you mind (repeat) _____ that? I didn't really catch what you said.
5. The secretary is tired of (talk) _____ to strangers all the time that he plans (quit) _____ the job.
6. My mom refused (help) _____ me with the homework. She insists on (let) _____ me rely on myself.
7. Now that we study for less hours at school, I spend most of my time (check) _____ different resources.
8. A: Are you happy (be) _____ back to school?
B: Yes, of course. I enjoy (study) _____ with my classmates.
9. I find it difficult (drive) _____ in the rain.
10. We all must (abide by) _____ our classroom rules.
11. I decided (revise) _____ my lessons regularly. I hate (leave) _____ things till the last minute.
12. It's no use (cry) _____ over spilt milk.