

1. British students have a wide choice of subjects. Tick the ones that are mentioned in the video.

- maths art politics science Arabic religion medicine history geography
- information technology food technology design and technology English literature

2. Write True or False.

- a. In Britain, all children stay at secondary school to the age of sixteen.
- b. All the students have their lunch at school.
- c. School starts at 9 o'clock a.m. and finishes at about six o'clock p.m.

3. Answer these questions.

- a. Do students go to university directly after taking GCSE examinations?
.....
- b. How many students go to the university?
.....
- c. What's the difference between state schools and independent schools?
.....

1. British students have a wide choice of subjects. Tick the ones that are mentioned in the video.

- maths art politics science Arabic religion medicine history geography
- information technology food technology design and technology English literature

2. Write True or False.

- a. In Britain, all children stay at secondary school to the age of sixteen.
- b. All the students have their lunch at school.
- c. School starts at 9 o'clock a.m. and finishes at about six o'clock p.m.

3. Answer these questions.

- a. Do students go to university directly after taking GCSE examinations?
.....
- b. How many students go to the university?
.....
- c. What's the difference between state schools and independent schools?
.....

1. British students have a wide choice of subjects. Tick the ones that are mentioned in the video.

- maths art politics science Arabic religion medicine history geography
- information technology food technology design and technology English literature

2. Write True or False.

- a. In Britain, all children stay at secondary school to the age of sixteen.
- b. All the students have their lunch at school.
- c. School starts at 9 o'clock a.m. and finishes at about six o'clock p.m.

3. Answer these questions.

- a. Do students go to university directly after taking GCSE examinations?
.....
- b. How many students go to the university?
.....
- c. What's the difference between state schools and independent schools?
.....

