

Match the idioms with their corresponding pictures

	cut to the chase	at the drop of a hat
be under the weather
	be all ears	hit the sack
a piece of cake
hold your horses	Lose one's marbles

- I'd better _____ now. I'm exhausted.
- A: We don't have much time here! Can you _____?
B: Just _____! I need to go over all this. Don't worry! We'll finish on time planned. Anyways, I'll be as brief as possible!
- A: So how was the test?
B: It was _____. I answered all the questions in less time.
- A: It's been long no see. Where have you been?
B: I have _____ lately. I could not get out of bed. I had a nasty fever.
- A: Hey! Can you fix this, please?
B: Sure, it's easy. I'll fix it _____.
- What did you just say?! Weird! Have you _____?
- A: I have some great news for you!
B: Really?! I _____. Let's see what you've got.

Match the idioms (1-8) with their corresponding meanings (a-h)

- be under the weather
 - a piece of cake
 - hold your horses
 - at the drop of a hat
 - lose one's marbles
 - hit the sack
 - be all ears
 - cut to the chase
- to go to bed
 - to get to the point
 - to be or feel ill/sad
 - immediately
 - to be eager to listen
 - very easy
 - to wait/slow down
 - to act in a crazy or strange way.

Fill in the gaps with appropriate idioms

Match the idioms with their corresponding pictures

	cut to the chase	at the drop of a hat
be under the weather
	be all ears	hit the sack
a piece of cake
hold your horses	Lose one's marbles

- I'd better _____ now. I'm exhausted.
- A: We don't have much time here! Can you _____?
B: Just _____! I need to go over all this. Don't worry! We'll finish on time planned. Anyways, I'll be as brief as possible!
- A: So how was the test?
B: It was _____. I answered all the questions in less time.
- A: It's been long no see. Where have you been?
B: I have _____ lately. I could not get out of bed. I had a nasty fever.
- A: Hey! Can you fix this, please?
B: Sure, it's easy. I'll fix it _____.
- What did you just say?! Weird! Have you _____?
- A: I have some great news for you!
B: Really?! I _____. Let's see what you've got.

Match the idioms (1-8) with their corresponding meanings (a-h)

- be under the weather
 - a piece of cake
 - hold your horses
 - at the drop of a hat
 - lose one's marbles
 - hit the sack
 - be all ears
 - cut to the chase
- to go to bed
 - to get to the point
 - to be or feel ill/sad
 - immediately
 - to be eager to listen
 - very easy
 - to wait/slow down
 - to act in a crazy or strange way.

Fill in the gaps with appropriate idioms